September 2022

News Letter

“ SUMMARY

The Month of September was filled with sessions from various Speakers, Market Experts, Social workers and Religious Scholars. Due to increased dengue cases around the city we conducted a blood drive to play our part for the betterment of society. A donation drive in collaboration with Saylani Welfare Trust was organized to help the people affected by flood. A talent hunt (Open Mic) was organized for FIA students to build confidence and give some relaxation from the stress of studies. A free course was offered by the name of Financial Literacy Program in which students were taught about investment opportunities by an experienced Trainer and Investor. Moreover, MHA conducted short sessions on student's career and self-awareness to know their worth and true potential.
